

Child Protection Committee Newsletter

Welcome to the first edition of the CPC Newsletter for 2016. This edition is promoting the Safer Internet Day for 2016 which is celebrated this year on Tuesday 9 February 2016.

Safer Internet Day 2016
Tuesday 9 February
Play your part for a better internet
www.saferinternetday.org.uk

Safer Internet Day is co-ordinated in the UK by the UK Safer Internet Centre to promote the safe, responsible and creative use of online technology for children and young people. See more information on their website www.saferinternetday.org.uk

To support this event, the team in Shetland are providing a training session on online safety to people working with children and young people. On Monday 8 February between 6pm and 8pm a “Social Settings” information stall will be available in the Shetland Library for members of the public. The stall will provide information and PEER Educators will be there to show people how to set up security and privacy settings for popular apps like Facebook, Snapchat, Instagram etc. The Social Settings Stall will be in the Shetland College on Tuesday 9 February in the Briggistanes Café from 12.00 until 1.30 pm.

Further online safety training dates are available, free of charge, throughout the year. These sessions are open to all persons who have involvement with young groups, carers etc. Please see dates listed below:-
